Today's program was a service project! We made 100 bags to go to the Falck Cancer Center! Bags included a puzzle book, cookies, cinnamon coffee cake, squeeze ball, Hershey Bar, sticky notes, pen, notebook and solar light. Bags will be delivered on Monday!

Thanks to President Sue for getting all the stuff and laying it out on the table so that we could fill all the bags! Always nice to deliver some cheer to those undergoing treatment!

NEXT WEEK – August 1 – we will be in Wisner Park as it is Fair week and some of our members will be working the gates! There won't be a Klarion either! The following week – August 8th we will be playing Bingo with some prizes of gift certificates for Captain Bills Dinner Cruise on Thursday August 22.

We will be doing Arena Ticket Scanning for the summer concerts - July 27 – Sabbath Nights and August 17 – Cooper Alan. We need volunteers for these events. We need 5 volunteers for both concerts! Please let President Sue know if you can help! Her email is sweetypy_55@yahoo.com

Happy Dollars.

Sue Mower – for today's service project and for all the events that we have been doing this summer!

Mark Wayne – for being able to play golf this weekend in a tournament with his brother Mike!

Alison Mandel – happy $5. Enjoyed Blandford Park on Tuesday even though we only served 8 lunches- 5 kids & 3 adults. Also, for the Fair next week – it is always an interesting experience and for the Circle K Board Meeting this weekend at Long Island University-Post campus!

Mike Wayne – Sorry about former member John Uszenski passing away. He always made Pigs in a Basket for the Christmas Auction which were a big-ticket item. He also organized our annual golf outing at Tomasso's. Also a sad dollar for the tree in his yard that was struck by lightning during the recent storm. Luckily it fell in the yard not in the street or against a poll.

Katrina Nichols – gave $6 for missing meetings for 6 months! Welcome Back Katrina!
