Program

Our speaker today was Emmi Saufley from Runway for a Cause. Runway For a Cause is a local nonprofit organization based in the Southern Tier of New York. They are entirely volunteer based. The team is empowered by talented people who are motivated to help their community grow and thrive. They provide an outlet for creative artists to showcase their talents. They are committed to helping the community become more educated about the fashion industry and the needs in the area. Emmi is a graduate of BOCES Fashion program and then got her associate's in business from Tompkins Cortland Community College. She started her nonprofit 5 years ago and each year she has helped to mentor aspiring designers both in the Elmira area as well as across the country. Their big fund raiser each year is a fashion show which showcase the designers and other creative artists. This year they have partnered with Community Arts of Elmira and have artists and designers working together. There will be a mural displayed at the event and then later painted on a space in downtown Elmira. The fashion show is on November 9 from 6-9pm at the Murray Athletic Center in Horseheads.

Happy Dollars

Gordy Schuehler – for the presentation and also for the continuing saga of his son's honeymoon cruise – they ended up with an 8-day cruise instead of 5 due to the hurricane and then finally made it back to Rochester on Sunday after several flight cancellations!

Mark Wayne – for the presentation and that he has know Emmi for many years and was at the first two fashion shows. He also had a happy dollar from his wife, MaryBeth, as she wanted to be at the meeting but had to work!

Ron Allison – happy for the program and said when he was in Catholic school they got to model for an event so he was a model for a day!

Mike Tarby – he is happy to be back! He said he is feeling better every day! He is happy that he is going to be a great grandfather as his grandson's wife is having a baby! Also thankful for his wife, Faith, for being his care giver and driver as he gets his health back!

We will be doing the Trunk or Treat at Wisner Park on Friday October 25 6-7:30pm. Lauren Little is the Chair. Please feel free to bring some bags of candy to hand out! She is looking for some volunteers to help! Last year it ewas very busy!
